

The diagram illustrates the process of alternative splicing. The top part shows a pre-mRNA strand with exons (colored blocks) and introns (lines). An arrow indicates the removal of introns and joining of exons. The bottom part shows the resulting mature mRNA strand, which is a single continuous sequence of exons.

